Love, Love, Love

Valentine's Day takes place this month, when those who are in love can take a day to express that love. That is a good thing. Relationships were a part of God's plan and so we should encourage this—every day.

There will, of course, be people waiting and hoping to get a card or flowers from somebody, but not sure whether or not that will come. Daisies will be picked and have their flowers pulled apart to the words, 'He loves me; he loves me not.' February 14th might answer that.

That's not how God works. We don't need to wait for a particular day of the year and just wait and hope to get something from God. We do not need to question his love for us.

There is a verse in the Bible that says, "God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us."

The best way that any of us can know that we are loved is by seeing love in action. God has shown that he loves us by sending Jesus to die for us. Our sin broke our relationship with him, but Jesus' death repairs that relationship - should we turn to him for the forgiveness he offers.

God is committed to our relationships with him. God loves us, even when we fail to love him back. God's love is so great that he was willing to make such a great sacrifice for us.

You are loved by God!
