An Invitation

This June we would like to invite you to come along to an event at church. There are a whole variety of good reasons why you might want to accept that invitation.

It could be that you quite like the idea of a particular event that is taking place. It could be that what you really want to do is to get out of the house and meet up with other people. It could be that you want to come along to something because your friend has asked you to come with them. It could be that you want to come to something at church because you want to find out more about Jesus and what it means to follow him.

Our society is very polarised at the moment and whilst people can be very nice to those they agree with, people can be really nasty to those who hold other views.

The example of Jesus is that we should love and respect all people and seek to help them to follow God's ways, which are the best ways. As Christian people that's how we try to live.

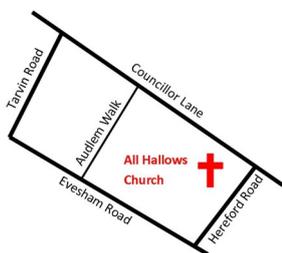

So, whatever your background and whatever your views we want to respect you and love you.

If, like me, you are fed up of the name-calling and intolerance of our society then why not accept this invitation to come and join us, and let's see if together we can change the culture of the world we live in.
